SENATOR DANIEL'S ABLE SPEECH ON THE FINANCIAL BILL

House-Probable Action of the President-Demands for the Force Bill.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—The discussion of the financial bill in the Senate to-day of the manufacture of the manufa and placing husself once more quarely in favor of the free coinage of silrer, the same position that was taken by the emocratic Convention of Virginia in the Democratic Convention of Virginia in the summer of 1889, when the last State-ticket was placed in the field. Senator Daniel had a large audience and he spoke for several hours. He has made this question a careful study, and although he has delivered several speeches on the currency question during the past two years, he had abundant material to.

Dead from Poisoned Brandy.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Wellow, N. C., January 6, 1891.

News of a very startling nature has reached there from Hondorson to the effect that Mr. Thomas Parker, a well-known and highly-honored citizen of Vance county, and acclored man whose name I am undered on that line all through his speech.

The artisaliver Republicans do not appear to have made up their minds what to do. When the cancus met at Senato. Stackinge's residence on Monday evening the brethren were greatly rattled. They had just been badly whipped and a worf the Radicals who had ardently backed the force bill had some hopes that they do wet take up that measure and put it much. At that informal conference the wild had some hopes that they will be passed there might vet be time with the conference of the start of the safe will be passed there might vet be time with him.

Therefore will have been badly whipped and a will hunting that day, the egging froit was postponed. Some one in the crowd killed by the premature discharge of a gun and the force bill. It was wagreed that even a free-colinge will be passed there might vet be time with him.

WHITE-HOUSE ERCEPTIONS.

WHITE-ROUSE RECEPTIONS. Well, the President is going to have bewhen how and the close of the social seasons one very elegant receptions at the Eucative Mansion, and he will have a chance to forget all about the bittler feelings that have been engeldered by the political questions before Congress. And by the way, some exquisite invitations have been is seed for these coming events. This is a noisi custom. It was the custom to send out invitations individually during most administrations until the Grants went to the White House. Then it was for a time dropped and mere amounteements were made. Haves and Arthur sent out the helps of the result of the election of a Speaker. Richard A. Doughton, of Alleghany, was nominated by the Democrats, and J. A. Hendricks, of Davie, by the Republicans, The vote was—Doughton, 93; Hendricks, 13. The other officers elected are: Principal Clerk, J. M. Brown; Reading Clerk, H. A. Latham; Principal Doorkeeper, H. E. King; Assistant, G. L. Kilpatrick; Engrossing Clerk, A. H. Hayes.

The Governor's message will be received and read-to-morrow.

THE THEST REGIMENT.

Governor Fowle was to day notified of the result of the election yesterday of chape of notices posted on the doors at the Senate and House press galleries—something like a lost pocket-book or a lost overshoe notice. This was done last season also by the Harrison regime, the former custom having been followed, but this season President Harrison has beautifully-entraved invitations sent to the public men and the press, and this will tend to increase the attendance at the White-House receptions, no matter what the callers may think of the President politically.

A NEORO LOAN.

think of the President politically.

A NEGO LOAN.

Mr. Teller offered in the Senate to-day by request of the Afro-American Colonization Society of this city a bill providing that the Government shall loan to the hearness $50.000.000 to enable them to start colonies in Lower California, with the ultimate view of having all the negroes of the United States settle there and start for themselves. The bill is accompanied by a lengthy petition, in which the statement is made that the negroes can do nothing to advance their race in the United States. Their labor consists chiefly of menial service, and all they make gets back again into the pockets of the white recepts. Some colored preachers and politicians are behind this scheme, and it seems that they have found their Utopia in Lower California, the same neck of land on which the Mormons have had their eyes for several years. The English syndicates are also having designs on the desolate peninsula, and now the darkies, if those mon can be called representatives of the race, want to go there. They also say in the petition that the Government should loan the money at a small rate of interest, and that it will be paid back in forty years. They give the fact that the negroes of Bermuda, Kingston, Jamaica, and Hayti have progressed since they cut loose from the whites, and the United States negroes should be given the same chances to test their ability to elevate themselves.

The Virginia Republican Association held

The House Committee on Military Affairs reported Senator Barbour's bill today for improving the public roads in Alexandria county, Va., so as to connect the Chain, Aqueduct, and Long bridges via Arlington. The Senate passed the bill some time ago, with an appropriation of $50,000, but the House committee has reduced the amount to $20,000.

The brandy began to have a terrible effect upod them, and Parker called to his colored man to ring the bell quickly for help. The call was quickly responded to, but before aid arrived Mr. Parker had died in great agony, and the negro only lived long enough to tell what had happened when he, too, expired after great suffering. I learn that the affair is being investigated and some startling revelations may be expected.

THE MYSTERY.

If the brandy was really poisoned, as is supposed, who put the poison into the bottle and why it was done remains a mystery to be solved. One of the greatest mysteries about the whole affair is that it should happen at an important town like Henderson, and yet not a line of the sad occurrence has found its way into any newspaper up to this date. It is supposed by some that the bottle contained poison and that the party who put the brandy in it did not know of its existence. CONTAINED STRYCHNINE.

An analysis of the brandy in the bottle out of which Mr. Thoraas Parker drank at Henderson last week and from the effects of which he died has just been made and the chemist found it contained strychnine. The deceased was a brother of Mr. W. S. Parker, of Henderson, well known to the usiness-men of your city. The authori-ies are making a thorough investigation. A YOUNG NEGRO PORGER.

A YOUNG NEGRO FORGER.

One day last week a young colored man by the name of Henderson, of Vance county, called at the office of a prominent lawyer in the town of Henderson to borrow some money, stating to the lawyer that he could give good real estate security, and that his mother and father would sign the papers. He knew old man Henderson to be a well-to-do colored man, and accordingly wrote the deed, which the young rascal took home for the signatures. He returned to town the next day with all the signatures and the magistrate's certificate stating that the parties had appeared before him, &c., &c. The lawyer examined the deed and it all appeared in due legal form, so the money was paid over to the young negro and he went on his way rejoicing. But as fate would have it the lawyer saw some of the persons whose lawver saw some of the persons whose names were signed to the deed when he was about to have the paper recorded, and, to his amazement, the whole thing was pronounced a forgery. The young secundrel had forged his daddy's, mammy's, and the magistrate's names. Not one of those whose names appeared in plain black and white had ever seen the deed or knew anything about it. JUST FOR FUN.

Young Henderson was duly arrested, and now he is reflecting behind the bars. He will unwillingly serve his State for not less than five years for his little fun, as he claims he did it all just for fun.

Mr. R. O. Burton, Jr., of your city, and Commonwealth's-Attorney Mullen, of Petersburg, were in Weldon yesterday on professional business.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE. The Officers Elected in the Two Branches-The Governor's Message To-Day-His First Reception at the Mansion.

(Special telegraph to the Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., January 7.—Both houses of the Legislature met at noon. All fifty senators were present and 106 of the 120 members of the House. There are four negroes in the Legislature, one being in the Senate. Nearly all the members are of middle age and are substantial men, mainly farmers.

WELCOMED.

Lieutenant-Governor Holt in calling the Senate to order made an address of welcome. The various officers nominated by the Democrats were elected without opposition, R. M. Furman, principal clerk; G. P. Pell, reading clerk; J. H. Hinnant, principal doorkeeper; A. M. Noble, assistant doorkeeper; Michael Bradshaw, engrossing clerk.

Governor Fowle was to-day notified of the result of the election yesterday of field officers of the First regiment of in-fantry: Julian E. Wood Elizabeth City, colonel; D. N. Bogart, Washington, lieu-tenant-colonel; W. T. Hollowell, Golds-bord, major, boro', major.

Bishop F. B. Lyman, of this Protestant
Episcopal diocese, left to-day for Bermuda, where he will remain some weeks by advice of his physician. HIS FIRST RECEPTION. Governor Fowle to-day gave notice that his first public reception at the Executive Mansion, which he occupied Monday, will be held next Tuesday evening. It will be informal. It is interesting to note that it is the first of the kind here in twenty-six years.

THE ASHEVILLE TOBACCO-WORKS Increase of the Capital Stock and Exten-

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

ASMEVILLE, N. C., Jannary 7.—The capital stock of the Asheville Tobacco-Works has been increased from $10,000 to $50,000. Fred. A. Hull, one of the founders of this concern yearsago, has been reelected president and general manager. Some names of prominent business men appear as stockholders. Among the new directors are D. C. Waddell, president of the National Rank of Asheville, and Major Charles M. Stedman, of Wilmington, formerly Lieutenant-Governor of the State. The business will be enlarged and extended, and in addition to plug- and smoking-tobacco, the outputs herefolore, there will be snuff and cigarettes. Major Stedman will in the future reside in Asheville, where he now has large financial interests.

The Virginia Republican Association held their usual monthly meeting this month, and as it is composed almost entirely of intense Radicals, with a big sprinkling of blacks, the force bill was endorsed.

A FINAL POW-WOW.

THE PINE RIDGE HOSTILES PROBABLY

Adopted in Modified Form-

Pine Rings, January 7.—Jack Red Cloud, Big Road, High Horse, Lone Bear, Live Hawk, and the five other Indians who came in from the hostile camp to hold a pow-wow with General Miles were allowed briefer conference than they had exto come in and surrender; that he was not here to listen to their complaints; that ton to make them after the trouble should be arranged here. They stated that nearly if not quite all of the Pine-Ridge Indians are desirous of peace and want to come if not quite all of the Pine-Ridge Indians are desirous of peace and want to come back to the agency.

If the Pine-Ridge Agency Indians conclude to come back it will greatly reduce the war party, now numbering 4,600. According to Agent Cooper's figures, there are 2,200 Pine Ridge Indians absent, and so their force will be reduced at least half the present number. A large portion of the remainder will doubtless fight to the end.

THE PINE-RIDGES WILL PROBABLY COME IN.

General Miles held another short talk with these Indians and they set out on their return. It is thought most of the Pine-Ridge Indians will be here in a day or two Pine-Ridge Indians will be here in a day or two.
Yesterday the quartermaster, Captain Hughey, purchased a herd of Indian ponies with which to mount the First infantry, recently arrived from California.
Persons report seeing a party of fifty Indians going south some miles to the east of here towards the town of Gordon. Licutenant Gresham, with one troop of the Seventh cavalry, at once pursued, but up to a late hour was unable to find any traces of them. Doubtless they were a small raiding party, which immediately returned upon seeing that they were discovered.

HOSTILES COMING IN.

CRICAGO, January 7.—Captain E. L. Huggins, at army division headquarters here, received a dispatch this evening from Adjutant-General Corbin, at Pine-Ridge Agency, saying that a number of Indians are coming into the agency from the camp of the hostiles.

ONLY AGENT ROYER TO BE REMOVED. ONLY AGENT ROYLE TO BE REMOVED.

WASHINGTON, January 7.—The order displacing the civilian agents at the five Dakota agencies and substituting army officers has been modified. Only Agent Royer, at Pine Ridge, will be removed, and Captain Pierce, of the First infantry, placed in full control. The Indian agents at the other agencies will not be disturbed, but army officers have been designated to take military control of the four other agencies with instructions to cooperate with the agents of the Interior Department. In communicating this to General Miles General Schofield said: "It is understood that this military supervision and control will need to be only temporary. This conclusion is regarded as a final settlement of the question."

PINE EIDGE'S ILL LUCK TOUCHING AGENTS.

It is stated at the Indian Bureau that the removal of Agent Royer at Pine Ridge was made by Secretary Noble upon the recommendation of Commissioner Morgan. It is stated that this recommendation was based upon the lack of capacity of Royer to meet the emergency at Pine Ridge. It is further stated that the cause of the removal of Agent Gallagher. Royer's predecessor, was in no sense political as has been stated, but was his unfitness for the position he held. As to Captain Pierce's duties, it is said that he will be under the control of the Secretary of the Interior and Commissioner of Indian Affairs, as any other agent, and will have no more military authority than any other agent. He will cooperate, as the existing order requires all agents among the Sioux to do, with the military authorities in a case of necessity, and the whole business will be conducted during the present difficulties as heretofore.

with Policemen-The Senate.

Concord, N. H., January 7.—Governor Goodell and Council had members of the police force, in charge of the City Marshal, scattered in various portions of the State House early this morning. As the members of the Senate and House filed upstairs it was necessary for them to pass by the Marshal and his officers, and also to identify themselves as members elect of the Leishburg. (By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

to the Speaker's desk. At the Democratic legislative carcus this forenoon the placing of policemen in the State House was severely denounced.

Long before the hour to assemble the galleries were thronged with spectators, while some of the leading representatives of both parties occupied seats in the lobbies below. The spectators gathered in anticipation of an exciting time at the opening of the session. Much time was consumed in Clerk Jewett's reading the certificates of members. At 11:35 o'clock Governor Goodell and Council entered Representative Hall, and twenty-five minutes later Clerk Jewett called the House to order. He immediately proceeded to call the roll of members prepared by him, included in which roll were the names of all "if-entitled" members who presented certificates, and all those from towns showing a decrease in population under the census of 1890 below six hundred. Omitted from it were those from former classed or pro rata towns, also the names of members from Meredith and Ware, on account of improper certificates. Clerk Jewett announced that the constitutional number of representatives appeared to be present and directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to administer the oath to members.

THE HOUSE.

THE HOUSE.

The roll of the House prepared by Clerk Jewett contains the names of 179 Kepublicans and 158 Democrats. Four Democrats did not present certificates. Had they done so their names would have been entered upon the roll by him, giving that party 162 members and the Republicans 17 majority. All the 178 Kepublicans responded to their names and only 166 Democrats.

Mr. Bingham, of Littleton, moved that a committee or three from each party be appointed to ascertain who are legally entitled to sit as members of the House, Clerk Jewett declined to state the motion on the ground that the House had not organized. Mr. Bingham, then, amid much confusion, put the question and declared it carried.

This caused laughter. After the members it carried.

This caused laughter. After the members had been sworn in Mr. Gallinger, of Concord, was elected temporary chairman. The Senate organized this noon, electing McLane, of Milford district, president; C. J. Hamblett, of Nashua, elerk; E. H. Washington, of Nashua, assistant clerk; O. H. Hamblett, of Mason, sergeant-at-arms, and Charles Emmons, of Wilmot, messenger. The returns of the votes in the different districts were read.

F. G. Clarke was elected Speaker of the House, S. T. Jewett clerk, and William Tutherly assistant clerk. A recess was then taken until 3 P. M. In the House this afternoon the Republican candidates for sergeant-at-arms and doorkeepers were elected, and special committees appointed to report rules and select a chaplain.

The Senate met the House in joint convention at 4 o'clock and filled two vacancies resulting from failure to elect. Both are filled by Republicans. THE ORGANIZATION.

TUTTLE (REPUBLICAN) GOVERNOR. TUTTLE (REPUBLICAN) GOVERNOR.

The committee appointed to canvass the returns of votes for Governor to the Secretary of State reported as follows: Whole number of votes, 86,240; Hiram A. Tuttle (Republican), 42,479; Charles H. Amsden (Democrat), 42,386; Josiah M. Fletcher (Probitionist), 1,383; scattering, 13—and there was no choice. A ballot was taken for Governor and resulted as follows: Tuttle, 185; Amsden, 150, and Tuttle was declared elected amid applanes from the Republicans. The convention rose and each house adjourned. Governor-elect Tuttle will be inaugurated tomorrow.

CONNECTICUT'S LEGISLATURE. The Senate Declares the Democratic State (By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

HOW THE LETTER WAS MADE PUBLIC.
This letter came to McGrath's office with other correspondence and was opened by his confidential clerk, who turned it over to Chairman Chase, of the Alliance Legislative Committee. Copies were made of the letter and the original was turned over to McGrath. Alliance leaders then asked McGrath to give the letter to the public and clear himself of any such position which might attach to the propositions contained in it. He refused to give the letter to Chairman Chase for publication, knowing nothing of copies having been made of it. Chase then turned over his copy of the letter to the editor of the Advocate.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Accompanying the publication of the letter is the following comment by the editor, Dr. McLailin: "The following letter which has failed into our hands will explain itself. In giving it to the public we believe we are performing a sacred duty. The interests at stake are too area to be sacrificed to any personal consideration. We regret the position in which the publication of the letter places the president of our State Alliance and a member of the Executive Board (Codding). We leave them to make such personal explanation as they may have to make. The schemes that are unfolded in this interesting document are worthy of some consideration at this time. We expect this publication to lead to other developments, which we shall give to our readers as the piot unfolds." EDITORIAL COMMENT.

WHAT M'GRATH SAIS.

McGrath was seen by a reporter this afternoon. He said that the allance officers were at liberty to inspect all his letters—both those received and those dispatched by him. He had nothing to conceal from them. The letter printed by the Advecate was an exact copy of one received by him. He had no further statement to make to the public beyond this. He could not prevent people from writing to him. Other officers of the alliance declined to be interviewed concerning the letter.

The Ead Not Yet.

[By toisgraph to the Dispatch.]

Lincoln, Nen., January 7.—The proceedings in the Nebraska Legislature this afternoon have been of an extra rdinary character. At 3 o'clock the Senate and House assembled in joint seasion for the purpose of canyassing the vote on State officers as prescribed by the Constitution. The trouble was precipitated at the outset by a misuaderstanding as to which officer should preside over the joint committee. Lieutenant-Governor, Micklejohn advanced to the chair to preside, claiming his right to do so under the Constitution, the statutes, and uniform practice of the State. Speaker Edg., of the House, refused to vacate, and the two officers occupied chairs side by side claiming the gavel. The Speaker attempted to call the body to order, but was himself called to order by the Lieutenant-Governor. The hall was crowded and the excitement was intense, but no demonstration was made beyond some loud talking and a number of motions to change the plan of proceeding to canvass.

These motions were declared out of order. The official returns were brought in by the Secretary of State and isld before the body. The Speaker was directed by the Lieutenant-Governovito open the package and read the returns. He began the work, but was advised by an attorney for the independent party not to so. He then refused to go on with the work. The Lieutenant-Governor ruled that no business could be transacted until the returns were canvassed, and this brought on a dead-lock. The joint convention sat for nearly four hours, the time being taken until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when a dead-lock will be again in force unless one side to pieve that the other was in the wong. At 7 o'clock a recess was taken until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when a dead-lock will be again in force unless one side decides upon a coup that will oring rictory.

The point involved is this: The Independent or Alliance party is contesting the election of a Democratic Governor and the remaining State officers, evidently pre Loxion, Exc. *January 7.—Advices received here from Boulogne say that O'Brien at his own request has been empowered to ask McCarthy to retire from the chairmanship of the anti-Parnell section of the Irish party in favor of Dillon, or if O'Brien prefers, in favor of himself. O'Brien announces that his conferences with Parnell are finished. The negotiations with McCarthy will follow.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that at yesterday's conference it was agreed that Justin McCarthy should resign the chairmanship of the party and that a full meeting of the party should be called to elect a new leader. The participation of the Parnellites in the vote for a new leader is tantamount to a reconciliation of the party and will be entirely satisfactory to Parnell.

we miss thee from our home, dear,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast.
We miss the sunshine of thy face,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee—
We miss thee everywhere.

We had five darling children and are left with only two. Lord! in Thy kind mercy. spare those two to us.

Soldier's Funeral His.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

CHARLESTON. S. C., January 7.—Captain George D. Wallace, who was killed by the Indians in the battle at Wounded Knee, was buried this morning at the cemetery at Yorkville, S. C., his old home. The services were conducted at the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. C. Galloway, of the Associate Reformed Church, and Rev. L. G. Patrick, chaplain of the Jenkins Rifles, the local military company. The casket was placed immediately in front of the pulpit and was draped with United States flags and covered with beautiful floral offerings. It was guarded throughout last night by a sentinel at the head and one at the foot, and this morning at 11 o'clock was delivered to General E. M. Law, a Confederate brigadier, who acted as chief marshal.

When the dead soldier's family entered the church the choir, led by Mrs. P. R. Bratton, sang the hymn. "Come, Ye Disconsolate." Prayer was offered by Chaplain Patrick, and was followed by an impressive funeral discourse by Rev. Mr. Galloway from Jeremiah xiviii., 17: "All ye that are about him bemean him, and all ye that know his name say, How is the strong staff broken and the beautiful rod!" The preacher commented with great power and eloquence on the exalted character and high manly virtues of the heroic dead.

After the conclusion of the services at the church a funeral procession was formed, with the Jenkins Rifles, under Captain W. B. Moore, as escort, and proceeded to the village cemetery, where the interment took place. Business was almost enturely suspended, and the whole community joined the procession to the grave, where the soldier was buried with military honors, the Jenkins Rifles firing a salute over his grave. The grave was decorated with wreaths and crosses of magnolia, laurel, and cut-flowers, tributes from the ladies of Yorkville.

The flag of Captain Wallace's troop, in which his body had been wrapped when taken from the field, and which had draped his coffin during his long journey home, was placed in charge of WORSTEDS-with a smattering of-a few of each-BLACK CORESCREWS AND CHEVI-OTS. SACKS AND CUTAWAY PROCKS-out to
